

Richmond Hill Cafe & Larder

A pot without a stove makes it very hard to cook!

Christmas in July Dinner

Stephanie Alexander is holding a special Christmas in July dinner to raise funds to upgrade the kitchen facilities at The Kitchen Garden at Collingwood College—her innovative gardening and cooking program for primary age children.

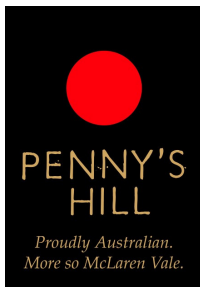

*The garden is beautiful and growing
The chooks are clucking
But the kitchen is OLD & new stoves are urgently required.*

Sunday 7 July, 2002 at 7 pm

$80 pp (inc. GST)

48-50 Bridge Road, Richmond

Bookings: (03) 9421 2808

Guests will enjoy 3 delicious courses in the festive style (including RHCL's famous Christmas Pudding), wines generously donated by McLaren Vale vineyard Penny's Hill and a special screening of videos of the project made by the students; the children get the presents (all profits from the night will go to The Kitchen Garden at Collingwood College)!
